

SENATOR HOLLY J. MITCHELL

INVITES YOU TO A PUBLIC HEARING FROM THE SENATE SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE SOCIAL DETERMINANTS OF CHILDREN'S WELL-BEING

Past, Present & Future: Immigration in Los Angeles & California's Investments in Immigrant Children

Thursday, October 24, 2019 • 10 am – 12:30 pm

Holman United Methodist Church • 3320 West Adams Blvd., Los Angeles

Please join Committee Chair Senator Holly J. Mitchell and other legislators for a hearing on the social determinants of children's well-being across California. We want to give you a chance to learn about the lives of immigrant children in our community and state at large. The focus of the hearing is on expanding assistance in legal matters, access to higher education, healthcare and mental health services. Members of the public are encouraged to provide public comments at the hearing.

Interpretation services will be available in Spanish and Korean, with additional languages provided upon request if possible. Parking is available free of charge.
