

Felicia Williams recently joined Kosmont Companies as Senior Vice President assisting municipal clients with a comprehensive approach to economic development and climate action, in addition to identifying funding sources for key projects. She has a background in public finance, economic development, and sustainability. Most recently she worked for PFM Financial Advisors LLC helping local governments finance environmental projects. Her prior experience includes originating PACE loans at CleanFund Commercial PACE Capital; corporate finance at Edison International / Southern California Edison; fixed income investment banking at RBC Capital

Markets, First Albany Capital, and Goldman Sachs; and real estate / economic development consulting at Kosmont Companies.

Ms. Williams has served as a Commissioner in the City of Pasadena since 2006 and is currently on the Planning Commission and Board of Zoning Appeals. Her previous appointments include the Boards of the Pasadena Center Operating Company and Rose Bowl Operating Company, Environmental Advisory Commission, and Transportation Advisory Commission. She currently serves on the Pasadena Educational Foundation and the Pasadena Police Foundation Boards.

Ms. Williams received her M.B.A. in Finance from the University of Michigan Ross School of Business, her M.A. in Urban Planning from UCLA, and her B.A. in Public Policy from Stanford University. Ms. Williams is presently a registered Municipal Advisor with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission and achieved a Series 50 professional qualification.