

John Jones Bio

John Jones has worked for the City of Torrance within the Recreation Profession for over 35 years. He started out as a volunteer for the City of Torrance within the Day Camp Program (Camp Chippawa); this is where he found his passion for public service. He graduated with is BA in Leisure Studies with a minor in Business Administration, and was hired as a full time Recreation Coordinator in 1980. He was promoted to Recreation Supervisor in 1985 and promoted again to Recreation Services Manager in 1990, and promoted to his current position in 2007. He is a strong and passionate provide believer in providing an innovative and extensive range of quality cultural, library, recreation, and park services and facilities to the Torrance community.