AB 1633 (Ting)	Housing Accountability Act: disapprovals: California Environmental Quality Act. Existing law, the Housing Accountability Act, prohibits a local agency from disapproving a housing development project, as described, unless it makes certain written findings based on a preponderance of the evidence in the record. The act defines “disapprove the housing development project” as including any instance in which a local agency either votes and disapproves a proposed housing development project application, including any required land use approvals or entitlements necessary for the issuance of a building permit, or fails to comply with specified time periods. Existing law, the California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA), requires a lead agency, as defined, to prepare, or cause to be prepared, and certify the completion of, an environmental impact report on a project that the lead agency proposes to carry out or approve that may have a significant effect on the environment or to adopt a negative declaration if the lead agency finds that the project will not have that effect. This bill would define “disapprove the housing development project” as also including any instance in which a local agency fails to issue a project an exemption from CEQA for which it is eligible, as described, or fails to adopt a negative declaration or addendum for the project, to certify an environmental impact report for the project, or to approve another comparable environmental document, if certain conditions are satisfied. On or after January 1, 2025, the Transportation Agency, Caltrans, and CTC shall incorporate into their existing program funding guidelines and planning processes the following principles: a) Building toward an integrated, statewide rail and transit network, centered around the existing California State Rail Plan, that leverages the California Integrated Travel Project to provide seamless, affordable, multimodal travel options in all contexts, including suburban and rural settings, to all users; b) Investing in networks of safe and accessible bicycle and pedestrian infrastructure, particularly by closing gaps on portions of the state highway system that intersect local active transportation and transit networks or serve as small town or rural main streets, with a focus on investments in low-income and disadvantaged communities throughout the state; c) Including investments in light-, medium-, and heavy-duty ZEV infrastructure as part of larger transportation projects. Supporting the innovation in and development of the ZEV market and help ensure ZEVs are accessible to all, particularly those in more rural/remote communities; d) Strengthening our commitment to social and racial equity by reducing public health and economic harms and maximizing community benefits to disproportionately impacted disadvantaged communities, low-income communities, and Black, Indigenous, and People of Color (BIPOC) communities in urbanized and rural regions, and involving these communities	MONITOR OPPOSE (3/13/23) LCC: CONCERNS	7/12/23 Senate Committee on Appropriations

Investments should also avoid placing new or exacerbating existing burdens on these communities, even if unintentional; e) Making safety improvements to reduce fatalities and severe injuries of all users towards zero on our roadways, railways, and transit systems by focusing on context-appropriate speeds, prioritizing vulnerable user safety to support mode shift, designing roadways to accommodate for potential human error and injury tolerances, and ultimately implementing a safe systems approach; f) Assessing physical climate risk as standard practice for transportation infrastructure projects to enable informed decisionmaking, especially in communities that are most vulnerable to climate-related health and safety risks; g) Promoting projects that do not significantly increase passenger vehicle travel, particularly in congested urbanized settings where other mobility options can be provided and where projects are shown to induce significant auto travel. These projects should generally aim to reduce vehicle miles traveled (VMT) and not induce significant VMT growth. When addressing congestion, consider alternatives to highway capacity expansion, such as providing multimodal options in the corridor, employing pricing strategies, and using technology to optimize operations; h) Promoting compact infill development while protecting residents and businesses from displacement by funding transportation projects that support housing for low-income residents near job centers, provide walkable communities, and address affordability to reduce the housing-transportation cost burden and auto trips; i) Developing a zero-emission freight transportation system that avoids and mitigates environmental justice impacts, reduces criteria and toxic air pollutants, improves freight's economic competitiveness and efficiency, and integrates multimodal design and planning into infrastructure development on freight corridors; j) Protecting natural and working lands from conversion to more intensified uses and enhance biodiversity by supporting local and regional conservation planning that focuses development where it already exists and aligns transportation investments with conservation priorities to reduce transportation's impact on the natural environment.

This bill would require the Clean Transportation Program’s investment plan to support annually increasing deployment of infrastructure and other projects that advance or support the deployment of light, medium, and heavy duty vehicles. This bill would require on or after January 1, 2025 that at least 50% of Clean Transportation Program funds for projects and programs directly benefit or serve residents of disadvantaged and low-income communities and low-income Californians, and at least 50% for tangible location-based investments shall be expended in disadvantaged and low-income communities.	MONITOR LCC: WATCH	6/26/23 Assembly Committee on Appropriations, ordered to third reading
